- Pass an examination conducted by the Illinois Department of Revenue.
- Possess ONE of the following:
 - Certified Illinois Assessing Official (CIAO) Certificate from the Illinois Property Assessment Institute with either
 - (a) additional training as required under Section 4-10 of the Property Tax Code, or
 - (b) successful completion of a minimum of 360 additional hours of department approved course work (180 hours of which must have been courses with written examinations) if an individual has served as a supervisor of assessments for twelve years or more.
 - Certified Assessment Evaluator (CAE) Certificate from the International Association of Assessing Officers.
 - —Member of the Appraisal Institute (MAI), Residential Member (RM), Senior Real Estate Analyst (SREA), Senior Real Property Analyst (SRPA) or Senior Residential Analyst (SRA) Certificate from the Appraisal Institute or its predecessor organizations.

Examination

The examination is arranged in a multiple-choice format. You may bring a noiseless calculator to the examination. A passing grade is 70 percent.

If you need any special accommodations, please contact the local examination coordinator to make the necessary arrangements.

The examination administered by the department includes the following:

- Appraisal techniques and terminology including problems pertaining to the market, income, and cost approaches to value
- Reading comprehension which includes articles from relevant publications and the statutes.
- Legal descriptions, including both quarter section and metes and bounds descriptions.
- Assessment procedures and assessment law.

Suggested study material for the examination:

- Text or courses on appraisal theory
- Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/1-1 et seq.) See tax.illinois.gov or the legal section of your local public library.
- Components and Cost Schedules

Test scores are valid for two years from the date of the examination. See 86 III. Adm. Code §110.180(e)(1).

Board of Review

Under Sections 6-5, 6-10, 6-30, and 6-32 of the Property Tax Code, in order to be eligible to serve as a Board of Review member, an individual must:

- Have experience and training in property appraisal and property tax administration.
- Pass an examination conducted by the Illinois Department of Revenue.
